Declaration.

I declare that it is entirely my own work except where duly indicated and clearly acknowledged in the text.

Abstract.

Many hypotheses regarding the Voynich manuscript appear to be unfounded, not grounded and unsupported. The characteristics of the characters are misunderstood, have not been dealt with in depth. In spite of all research projects that others have tried to decipher the manuscript, there was no any successful solving of the reading the Voynich manuscript.

My research results are absolutely successful. Based on several years up - to - date innovative research, the investigation of background information and detailed analytic studies of the characters of the Voynich manuscript have been undertaken to define the significance of the text. The resulting survey provides comprehensive scholarly work, that has revealed the language which it was written, provide evidence different codes that were using in the Voynich manuscript and has proved that.

Keywords: successful solving, Voynich Manuscript, deciphering the whole text, innovative research, Medieval Galician language.

Acknowledgements.

I would like to acknowledge Vilnius University and academic members of The Department of Romance Studies, Spanish Philology directed by Doc. dr. Miguel Villanueva Svensson as well as Linguistic studies, Prof. dr. Jurgis Pakerys.

I'd also like to extend my gratitude to my family for all the support :Galina.Gladyseva, M.Gladysevas, J.Gladyshev, E.Gladyseva, M.Avery and A.Luck.

I would like to extend my sincere thanks to Romance Society and particularly to S.Rakauskiene, V.Oparinas, L.Oparina, S.Sirota, S.Glebova, T.Naumenko, E.Pavlovas as well as to A. Kanisoedis, Tatjana Melnikova, V.Svein and Nikola Stepka for publishing support.

I would like to thank the Vilnius University library and its media specialists for informational support as well as to Instituto da Lingua Galega, directed by Xosé Luís Regueira Fernández and to Research Project Studies Department of 'De materia medica' of Dioscorides, directed by professor Antonio López Eire, financed by the Ministry of Science and Innovation (MICINN HUM-2006-08794).

Special thanks to Professor Emeritus Jan Gunneweg, Dr. Govert Westerveld and D.N.O'Donovan for providing academic support, feedback throughout this project and profound belief in my work and in my abilities.

7.1 THE COMPLETE LIST OF ALL THE BOTANICAL NAMES DETERMINATED IN THE VOYNICH MANUSCRIPT WITH LATIN TAXONOMY, VERNACULAR BOTANICAL NAMES AND LINGUISTIC ANALYSIS OF THE ORIGIN OF NOMENCLATURES WITH THEIR SOURCES IN THE MEDIEVAL PERIOD.

All botanical names that have been identified in the Voynich Manuscript have been deciphered and read in the very text of the Voynich Manuscript.

It is the only research of the Voynich Manuscript that is primarily and generally based on its linguistic source – the lexicology, but not on the analysis of phytomorphs' similarities with herbarium specimens that were always made by other researchers ( J. Janick, A.O. Tucker, 2017; Stephen Bax, 2014) that led to wrong encompassing of plant species due to difficulty of determination. Therefore, less than 10 percent of plants that were determined by other researchers are correct. Some of the researchers for e.g. Gerard Cheshire (G. Cheshire, 2019), even suggested that there are no botanical names at the whole Voynich manuscript due to their absence in the medieval period, therefore his research results are double incorrect.

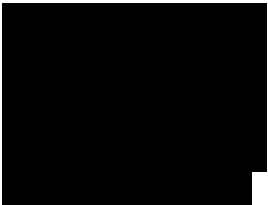

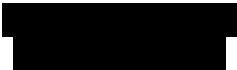

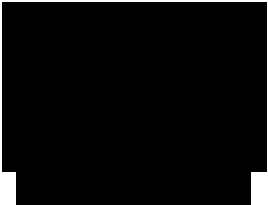

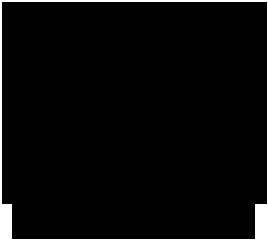

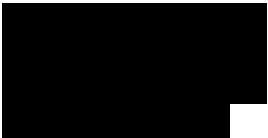

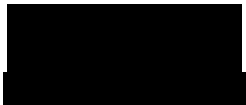

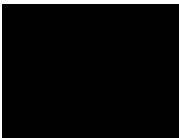

Important that these innovative research results are succesfull. All 131 plants have been deciphered.

Information for publishers and editors of the scientific journals, the author is open to publish any chapter of "Decoding the whole text of the Voynich manuscript by Alisa Gladyseva" .

Since the submission of scientific articles for publication in scientific journals must not have been previously published nor has it been submitted for consideration by any other journal, the information on the content of some chapters is omitted in the preview of this book "Decoding the whole text of the Voynich manuscript by Alisa Gladyseva" .

‘The reader is invited to experience the joy appreciating of decoding the WHOLE Voynich manuscript which has eluded understanding for more than 500 years!’

It is a well- documented text of over 700 pages for degree gaining with extensive endnotes of step-by-step deciphering and morphological proving of every word. The cipher has only one right decipherment, when You can read the whole text.’

The Voynich manuscript has been studied by many professional and amateur cryptographers, including American and British code breakers, but nobody of them could decipher it. So this unique book provides qualitative analyze, based on up-to-date innovative research.

The whole alphabet of the Voynich manuscript is deciphered as well as the whole text. All botanical names that have been identified have been deciphered and read in one text from the Voynich Manuscript.

It is the only research of the Voynich Manuscript that is primarily and generally based on its linguistic source – the lexicolgy. Research years: 2015-2019.
